

Guernsey Film

Seminar with drinks reception, Thursday 30th September 2010
Charlotte Street Hotel, London

Coordinating the many financial aspects involved in film making can be complex and inefficient without access to the right expertise.

Fortunately, Guernsey boasts a high concentration of service providers and solutions which can simplify the search process and maximise results.

Event profile

Guernsey Film is a newly formed group of finance industry professionals as well as representatives from Guernsey's government who collectively offer a full range of suitable expertise and facilities.

This event is designed to demonstrate the depth and breadth of the services available on the Island as well as the level of experience and expertise on offer.

Attendees should leave with insight into how Guernsey effectively offers 'a one stop shop' along with a valuable network of Island connections.

Seminar Content Includes:

- Why Guernsey? Our unique one-stop offering
- Overview of marketplace opportunities
- Case studies / success stories
- Structuring and legal issues
- Technological innovation
- Intellectual property environment
- Insurance capabilities
