

supported by

Flight to Quality

Join TV news anchor Alastair Stewart in London as he hosts an interactive half-day conference with Guernsey and UK funds experts tackling the key issues facing the industry at the time of the British General Election - and beyond.

EVENT DETAILS

DATE Wednesday 26th May 2010

KEYNOTE SPEAKER AND MODERATOR Alastair Stewart OBE, ITV News Journalist

VENUE Grange St. Pauls Hotel, 10 Godliman Street, London EC4V 5AJ
www.grangehotels.com

CONTENT & TIMINGS

12.30 Registrations & buffet lunch provided

13.30 Conference commences

17.00 Drinks & networking reception

KEYNOTE Alastair Stewart

SESSION 1 Transparency - including Bridget Barker, Macfarlanes, will provide a latest update on the current corporate governance and regulatory developments e.g. AIFM Directive that are shaping the future of funds centres globally

SESSION 2 Distribution - including Scott Cochrane, Herbert Smith, explores Guernsey's popularity as a jurisdiction for launching listed closed-ended funds, asking: Why closed-ended? Why listed? Why Guernsey?

SESSION 3 Alternatives - including Jon Moulton, Better Capital, gets to grips with what sets Guernsey apart from the competition as an (alternative) funds domicile and looks at what the future might hold for the funds industry

BOOKING DETAILS

CONTACT Fiona Murray, Orchard Events

TEL +44 (0)1481 240606

EMAIL fiona@orchardevents.com

CHARGE £100 + VAT per person

Exhibition and sponsorship opportunities are available at this conference. Please contact Fiona Murray for more information on packages.

Up to four hours CPD are available for this conference.