

30 July 2009

Mourant International Finance Administration wins industry award

Mourant International Finance Administration has received the accolade of Fund Administrator of the Year in the European offshore category at International Custody and Fund Administration's (ICFA) recent global awards ceremony in London.

The awards recognise excellence in the funds industry and cover 25 categories and areas of achievement. The judging panel included Angela Knight, CEO of the British Bankers Association, Dr Werner Frey, CEO of the European Securities Forum and Margie Lindsay, editor of Hedge Fund Review.

This honour builds on Mourant's recent success at ICFA's European Awards when it was named 'European Private Equity Fund Administrator of the Year' and 'Fund Administrator of the Year: Channel Islands'.

Matt Wood, Managing Director at Mourant International Finance Administration in Guernsey, commented: "Mourant was honoured to be named the 'Fund Administrator of the Year: European Offshore' at the recent ICFA awards. This latest accolade acknowledges the consistently high standards we deliver to our clients and builds on the two awards we received from the publication in 2008. I would like to extend my congratulations to all our staff in Guernsey for playing their part in achieving this award, it is a fitting testament to their knowledge and expertise."

Release Ends