

News Release

8 March 2009

Schroders Private Banking wins again

Schroders Private Banking has won two awards at the Private Asset Management \(PAM\) Awards 2010.

The bank, which has operations in Guernsey, Jersey and London, also scored a double at the 2009 event.

This year, it again claimed top spot for Ultra High Net Worth (UHNW) Overall Client Service Quality as well as placing first for Ultra High Net Worth (UHNW) Image and Reputation. The firm had been shortlisted in five out of 12 categories.

“We are very proud to have been successful in the 2010 PAM Awards for the second year in a row,” said Julian Winser, CEO for Schroders in the Channel Islands.

“The awards themselves are now recognised as the most sought after in the UK private asset management world, and to have been shortlisted for five of the awards this year was a privilege in itself.”

Schroders was also recently named Best Overall Business and Best Medium Sized Business at the Guernsey Awards for Achievement 2009.

Release Ends